

The “Joint was Jumpin” at the Hyatt Regency Resort for New Year’s Eve!!

While many pondered the question, “Where will we spend our end of year?” quite a few discovered that the lobby bar of the Hyatt Regency Resort in Palm Beach offered one of the best places to party down, and for only the cost of one’s drinks!

Situated just across from the casino, it offered a cozy atmosphere and a beautiful view while the savvy DJ played all the great “Golden Oldies” that gets people of all generations on the dance floor. Some of the group that gathered there garnered one the four posters, and some could even take a nap while awaiting the midnight pyrotechnics and champagne toast. Free party hats were given out to guests, and the DJ involved everyone in the evening’s entertainment.

It would appear that this was definitely the “Happening Place” on New Year’s Eve, and, at a glance, it would appear that Charlie’s Angels even made the scene!
